

Organ Recital

Emanuele Battisti

(Italy)

Sunday, January 20

4PM

Emanuele Battisti is a concert organist, scholar and composer from Italy. His interests are equally divided between Early-Baroque and Contemporary music and between performance, composition and research. Emanuele Battisti holds the Marcella K. Brownson Fellowship for Organ Study, and the 2007-08 Westfield Scholar Award, while concurrently holding a teaching assistantship in the Department of Foreign Languages at the University of Illinois.

Works by:

H. Scheidemann, J.S. Bach, D. Buxtehude, M. Casini, G. Frescobaldi, and Gy. Ligeti

Gen. Ad.: $15 Students, Seniors: $10

THE FIRST LUTHERAN CHURCH OF BOSTON

A.D. 1839

299 Berkeley Street, Boston, Massachusetts • 617 536 8851 • www.flc-boston.org • flc@flc-boston.org